ABOUT NYSORA ASIA

COURSE DIRECTOR

Dr Admir Hadzic, MD, PhD
St Luke's - Roosevelt Hospital Center, New York, USA

NYSORA presents the 4th Pan-Asian Symposium on Regional anaesthesia and Pain Medicine from 7th- 9th May 2010 in Bangkok.

The Symposium will focus on recent advances in regional anaesthesia and pain management. Leaders and experts in regional anaesthesia and pain medicine will share their knowledge and wealth of experience in these rapidly evolving fields of anaesthesia. The symposium will not only highlight the trends and developments in regional anaesthesia and ultrasound guided peripheral nerve blockade, but will also present latest techniques in pharmacologic and interventional pain management.

The NYSORA symposium is a CME accredited course and certificates will be awarded to the delegates on completion of the workshop.

NYSORA Asia promises that the symposium will boost exchange of clinical experience among the experts and delegates and will provide an enriching experience to all.

DON'T MISS OUT ON AN OPPORTUNITY TO GROW YOUR BUSINESS

The event will provide a highly dynamic opportunity for business generation and market penetration. Sponsors will enjoy a wide range of possibilities for direct and sustained access to potential and existing clients from their target industries and companies. By bringing together the leading minds on the leading issues, this symposium will provide an ideal platform for learning and information sharing.

BENEFITS TO SUIT YOUR NEEDS

There are a wide variety of sponsorship options, hospitality suites, function ownership and other networking and business development opportunities with all packages tailored to deliver maximum focus and value for your investment.
